

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

““Help us achieve our vision: a city where everyone thrives.”

Dixon Hall Neighbourhood Services is a multi-service agency located in the heart of east downtown Toronto. For more than 85 years, Dixon Hall has offered a wide variety of unique supportive programs and services to a diverse range of communities, including Regent Park, Moss Park, Cabbagetown, Main/Danforth and St. James Town. The agency serves a vast and diverse group of community members, including youth, seniors, newcomers, job seekers, and homeless men and women. Dixon Hall works with many other community agencies to support Torontonians and create lasting solutions to end poverty, social injustices, and isolation.

Dixon Hall Neighbourhood Services is seeking a leader to sustain its current partnerships and develop new alliances and partnerships, leveraging these relationships for growth and revenues – a proven mobilizer who can develop a common vision with the Board of Directors to guide Dixon Hall well into the future. An empathetic and caring leader of people, you will steer the organization through a rapidly changing external environment with energy, innovation, excitement and confidence—to advance advocacy, win new friends, inspire staff and volunteers to meet Dixon Hall’s mission, vision and values. You will, with a very talented leadership team, ensure that programs and services offered continue and enhance their excellence; develop the best talent, performance metrics, fundraising and a culture of strong fiscal stewardship. You will build on a solid foundation of success to continue Dixon Hall’s leadership in the province.

To qualify for this truly rewarding leadership role, you should have demonstrated leadership experience in a smaller non-profit or other public sector service organization, or senior leader (V.P. or Director) in a larger, non-profit or broader public sector organization; proven ability to inspire, motivate and lead a cohesive, talented management team and staff; and experience in building collaborative partnerships and alliances with government, funders, community leaders, donors and volunteers. You bring demonstrated change and risk management skills. You are innovative and creative. You have excellent communication skills. You know how to inspire, engage and support employees across an organization. And, you enjoy fundraising and advocacy as a true champion and ambassador of your organization’s mission.
